UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS' COURT.

A Cigar Dealer in Trouble. The United States vs. Augustus Cohen.—The defendant, doing business as a cigar dealer at 174 Water street, was yesterday brought up before the District Attorney on a charge of selling and offering for saie cigars in boxes without the same having the proper internal revenue stamps thereon. Bailed in $3,000. More Counterfeiters.

Frederick Wagner, who is said to be one of a gang f counterfeiters, was brought before Commissioner Osborn charged with attempting to pass one of the new and dangerous counterfeit ten dollar notes, purporting to be issued by the Farmers and Manufacturers' National Bank of Poughkeepsie, upon John Buckardt, a lager beer dispenser, at No. 427 Second avenue. Another counterfeit ten dollar note, purporting to be issued by the First National Bank of Poughkeepsie, was found on the accused. He was

SUPREME COURT-TRIAL TERM. Suit for Damages in Killing a Child. Before Judge Freedman.

Henry Voigd vs. Henry Broestier .- In September, 1869, a child five and a half years old of the plaintiff was killed by a horse of the defendant, and suit was brought to recover $10,000. A team of horses belonging to the defendant were unhitched from their wagon and feeding in front of the plaintiff's resi ence, in Second street, between avenues B and C, dence, in Second street, between avenues B and C, when becoming frightened by a dog one of them wheeled about on the sidewalk, knocking the child down, stepping on it and killing it. It was moved to dismiss the complaint, on the ground that the child being so young no plea of loss of services could be put in; and further, that the father should have brought the suit as administrator and not as father. The Judge ruled that damages only for fifty dollars—the amount allowed under the statutes—could be claimed under the suit as at hus brought. The jury brought in a verdict of fifty dollars, in accordance with the ruling of the Judge.

Alleged Bounty Frauds.

Alleged Bounty Frauds. The case of John Phyle vs. Constant Cook and Henry Sherwood was brought up in the Supreme Court yesterday. This is an action for $6,950, for services, said to have been performed in procuring colored substitutes for the quota of Steuben county. The plaintiff alleges that the defendants, failing to procure their claim from Stouben county, procured over $200,000 from the State of New York to pay the bounties and expenses incurred by them, but failed to pay the bounties or the plaintiff for his services. The case came up on motion to remove the case to Steuben county, but the motion was denied with ten dollars costs.

An Ex-Bank President Sues for Wages-Put Not Your Trust in Boards of Directors.

Selah Van Duzer vs. The New York National Exchange Bank .- In 1851 the plaintiff, then a success-Iut banker, originated this institution, then known as the New York Exchange Bank, his associates electing him permanent president and conferring upon him full powers as to appointment of officers, fixing their salaries and the general management of the affairs of the bank without a board of directors. Mr. Halstead, the present president of the bank, then a clerk of his, he appointed his cashier. Under the plaintin's management the Sank proved highly successful, paying twelve per cent annually to the stockholders, besides, during his term, extra dividends—one of fifty and another of thirty per cent. In 1864 the act of Congress creating national banks was passed, and this was the first institution in this city which availed itself of its provisions, and at that time a board of directors was necessarily elected. Since that time, differences having arisen between the plaintin, as president, and some of its directors as to its management, he determined in June, 1870, to withdraw, and proposed his stock at its then value (194) and paid him his stock at its then value (194) and paid him his resignation. In a few days he was informed that his proposal was accepted, and upon his resignation the following resolution was passed by the Board:—"Resolved, That in accepting the resignation of Mr. Van Duzer, as president and director the Board of Directors, desiring to express their appreciation of his sing and faithful services, do hereby hirect the cashier to continue the payinent of his salary until the lat day of January next."

Dumar's Dancing Academy, 24 West fourth attention and faithful services, do hereby hirect the cashier to continue the payinent of his salary until the lat day of January next."

directors had no authority to pass such a resolution, and that it was contrary to public policy and the act of Congress. The Court granted the motion, for the reason that there was no consideration for the resolution passed, and that it was a voluntary act of the Board, which they, in fact, revoked by their resistance of piantid's claim. For plaintif, B. F. Dunning; for defendant, J. K. Hazard.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Before City Judge Bedford. HARDENED THIEVES TO BE SENT TO THE STATE PRISON, PRESPECTIVE OF OFFERS TO PROVE GOOD CHARACTER.

John Fisher pleaded guilty to burglary in the third degree, he having on the 3oth of September broke into the stable of Luke Pattersen, Nos. 15 and 17 First street, and stole a set of harness valued at $150. Mr. Hummel asked his Honor to postpone sentence for a few days, in order to afford the prisoner an opportunity to establish his previous

BROOKLYN COURTS.

Attempting to Pass Counterfeit Money.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS' COURT.

Before Commissioner Winstow. Daniel McCole was before the Commissioner yesterday for having attempted to pass a counter cit twenty dollar oill of the Oneida National Bank .-The defendant on New Year's night went into Charles Wenguorotti's saloon, under the Park thea-Charles Wenguorotti's saloon, under the Park theatre, and after partaking of some oysters tendered the bill in payment. He was informed that it was a counterfeit, whereupon he left and proceeded to Schilling's cigar store, on Fulion street, where he attempted to pass it again. He was then arrested by officer Kirby, of the First precinct, who happened to be in the store at the time. The bill was proven to be a counterfeit during the examination, and the Commissioner held McCole to bail in the sum of $3,000 to await the action of the Grand Jury. It was also shown that he had an amount of small change in his possession when he was arrested. Several witnesses testified to his good character.

CITY COURT.

Action Against Sureties to a Lease. Before Judge Thompson.

Charles A. Coe vs. Patrick Cassidy and John E. W. Hopke.—Plaintiff brings suit for $2,500, the defendants being sureties on a loss of a distillant and sixteen lots of ground, at Gold and John streets, formerly owned by Hezekiah Keily. The premises were rented in October, 1806, to Alexander Cunningham, for one year, at $10,000, with the privilege of a renewal for four years, and the defendants guaranteed the payment of the rent. In the latter part of the month Keily sold the premises to plaintiff, assigning his interest in the lease. Cunningham demanded a renewal of the lease in September, 1867, and a renewal was given at Cunningham's request to George B. Harris and Martin Schneider, the defendants becoming sureties on this lease also. Plaintiff now sues to recover the rent for the quarter ending April 18, 1870, which remains unpaid.

The defence is that the premises were surrendered by defendant's principal prior to January 18, 1870, since which time the plaintiff who accepted the premises has rented them to other persons. streets, formerly owned by Hezekiah Kelly. The pre-
